A BAFFLED CONSPIRACY.

The conspiracy to control the Hawaiian courts and use them for a base purpose dies hard but it is dying nevertheless. Three years ago it was entrenched and arrogant; now its breastworks are smashed and the hospital is full of its wounded.

During these years of judicial misconduct, two judges of the Supreme Court have held the ground against the enemies of justice and of good government. These high-minded jurists are Chief Justice Frear and Associate Justice Perry.

But neither the people, the Governor nor the President will stand for any more scandals on the bench; those in authority are not going to take risks in such a grave matter. The Hawaiian public have learned from the admirable appointments so far made what to expect of the Governor and President.

What is the matter with auditing in this Territory? Every few days the public hears of a shortage either in public office or private employment which has escaped notice for weeks or months by auditors whose chief business is to see that accounts are kept straight.

The ability of Assistant U. S. Attorney Dunne in the presentation of the Postoffice case in the Federal court marks him as one of the most capable lawyers at the Hawaiian bar.

Utah did not seem to be disturbed over the state law forbidding plural marriages, but President Smith's proclamation the other day, forbidding them in the name of the Church, seems to have been a settler.

February 1904 the price of the most valuable New York was $100 per ton. It was $100 per ton. It was $100 per ton.

FREAR DID RIGHT.

The "chops and tomato sauce" evidence which Dickens ridiculed is akin to that of the production of a letter written by Judge Frear to Representative Chillingworth before the County bill was enacted, suggesting certain things that ought to go into that measure.

That our readers may see how small an essay the Bulletin's sensation fills, we reprint the Frear letter in full: Honolulu, Feb. 2, 1903. Hon. S. F. Chillingworth, House of Representatives.

Dear Sir: I understand you are to have charge of the County Bill and that it will soon come up in the House. I have not had time to go through it all yet; but I include a few suggestions as to the first part and may later send other suggestions as to the remainder.

The incidental suggestion of Judge Frear in the above letter was to repeal laws which the County bill already covered so as not to confuse the compilers. For this dastard deed it is contended that the Chief Justice should be driven from the bench.

But precedents accumulate. The Judiciary Act of the United States was drawn by Oliver Ellsworth of Connecticut who was afterwards placed in a position, as Chief Justice of the United States, to interpret it. The laws of the District of Columbia were prepared for codification by Judge Cox, who afterwards passed upon them from the bench.

There are also local examples. Judge Frear was appointed by President McKinley as a member of the Commission to frame the Organic Act of Hawaii and then was made Chief Justice of the court which was to consider its provisions.

Speaking of the Burton case the New York Times (Ind. Dem.) and Evening Mail (Rep.) think it best for the Senator to resign at once, and the Detroit Free Press (Ind. Dem.) says that "if the Senate has any regard for its own traditions it will make short shift of Burton."

February 1904 the price of the most valuable New York was $100 per ton. It was $100 per ton. It was $100 per ton.

A BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

It would be a fine thing for Hawaii if the Boston Fruit Company, which is making inquiries about the banana possibilities here, could be induced to do for this Territory what it is doing for Jamaica.

If the Boston company would start such a business here Hawaii would rise to meet it with enough bananas to supply the Pacific coast. Banana culture is expanding fast and the assurance of a wider market and a cash customer would bring some thousands of acres more of land under cultivation.

Facts like these should be impressed upon the Boston people. It ought to be made plain to them that small and fast steamers running from here to San Francisco and back via Los Angeles would find plenty to do. Honolulu wants relief from the steamship trust; it wants to do a banana business on a great scale; it wants tourists.

ACTIVITY ON THE YALU.

According to Russian advices the Japanese have succeeded in getting one column out of several across the Yalu. This means that if the victorious force can hold its position, the remainder of the army will follow on the same route, thus establishing itself on Manchurian soil.

If the Russian government can lay seven thousand miles of track in eighteen months it will hold the palm for rapid construction. To double-track the Siberian line will require either a widening of the roadbed or a removal of the present rails to one side.

Mr. Hearst failed, after all, to get the Texas delegates. Most of his convention support comes from the Democrats of Republican States. In Democratic and doubtful States, the Democracy has a more practical use for its ballots.

Man Chong receives practically a life-sentence for the murder of Officer Mahelona. A man of his age can hardly expect to live twenty-five years in any event and a term of that length has been imposed.

Though son-in-law of the principal factor of the Oahu Railway Company and receiving remuneration as trustee for the bondholders of the corporation, Mr. Frear did not consider himself disqualified to sit as judge and jury in the Davis case and join in a decision charging Davis with practically black-mailing the corporation with which he, Frear, was so intimately associated.

There is no excuse for this interference since it was lately reported, as such in the Bulletin of the Federal Government, that Mr. Davis had been tried for black-mailing the Oahu Railway Company but for black-mailing John K. Sauer. The Oahu Railway Company did not appear in the trial, which was a sham of a sham.

February 1904 the price of the most valuable New York was $100 per ton. It was $100 per ton. It was $100 per ton.

ARE HARD TIMES AHEAD?

John D. Rockefeller, in the course of a recent interview, said that hard times might be looked for about 1907. He thought by that date there would be ten million people out of employment and said: "Unless we have internal improvements for them to work on they will burn our cities."

The question of internal improvements on a vast scale might also be discussed and disposed of. Good roads are everywhere desired; there is an enormous irrigation project for the arid States; rivers and harbors need attention; there is a vast public domain in the Philippines to be opened up.

Inquiries made by the Russian ambassador as to why the North Pacific squadron had been ordered to Honolulu, may account for the change of program by which only the New York and Bennington are coming. The orders were coincident with those to Admiral Evans permitting the squadron at Subig bay to venture into Chinese waters.

When the Japanese squadron approaches Port Arthur nothing is seen of the Russian fleet and of the much-vaunted submarines. The forty-two vessels still there keep well back of the forts. Only on the other side of Korea do the Russians show naval activity and there they have succeeded in sinking two small merchant steamers.

Chas. Huxtable, Jr., takes the place of Frank C. Atherton as assistant cashier in the Bank of Hawaii.

One of the stirring spectacles to be shown at the St. Louis Exposition will be the reproduction of a battle between the Boers and British. Actual participants in the war will appear, the Boer veterans being commanded by General Cronje and the British veterans by Major Scott-Hardin.

Mr. Hearst failed, after all, to get the Texas delegates. Most of his convention support comes from the Democrats of Republican States. In Democratic and doubtful States, the Democracy has a more practical use for its ballots.

A LINGERING COUGH

The cough that holds on in spite of all remedies needs energetic and above all thorough treatment. A mere cough mixture won't do. Root out the cold that causes the cough.

How? Scott's Emulsion. Why Scott's Emulsion? Because it stops the irritation, soothes the tissues and heals the affected membranes.

People who have used Scott's Emulsion will not be satisfied with any of the numerous substitutes that are offered in the form of wines, extracts, cordials, etc.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.
